

David J. Dionisi
539 J Street, Davis, California 95616
Phone: (530) 554-7061 and Email: ddionisi@sbcglobal.net.com

CAREER SUMMARY

A successful work history of bringing complex ideas to life.

Founder, 8/2004 to present. Teach Peace Foundation executive responsible for all technology systems and services. The Teach Peace Foundation helps people with education and acts of kindness. Led the creation of this 501(c)(3) non-profit that has helped thousands of people around the world. Deliverables include life saving services and education programs in multiple countries. Recipient of the 2009 Martin Luther King Jr. Outstanding International Peace Leader Award, the 2010 St. Anthony of Padua Parent and Teacher Association Award, the 2013 Disabled Center for Hope Award, and the 2014 St. Francis of Assisi Award.

Vice President of Operations & Services, 10/01 to 6/2004. MetLife senior executive in charge of iBusiness (the intelligent application of the Internet and reengineering to business processes). In 2003 and 2002, led a $58 million dollar project called eService or self service via the Internet. During this time led the creation and deployment of a producer centric Internet portal solution serving financial advisors and insurance agents in five MetLife companies.

Senior Vice President of Product and Service Development, DirectAdvice.com, Hartford, Connecticut, 1/00 to 11/00. Responsible for the day-to-day activities of the company that Celent Research described as the leading provider of comprehensive Internet financial planning. Responsibilities included supervision of web site management, usability, customer service, project management, financial modeling, business analysis, financial planning and content creation. Versions of this Internet application were created for the Japanese, German, and U.S. markets.

Vice President of Electronic Commerce, MetLife, Boston, Massachusetts, 6/96 to 1/00. Senior executive responsible for strategic Internet initiatives. Overall leadership for consumer Internet offerings with direct accountability for the consumer driven electronic commerce strategy, business definitions, service design, financial management, vendor management, project management, pricing, compliance and implementation.

Registered Investment Adviser Strategic Initiative and Personal Financial Planning Leader, Prudential, Liberty Corner, New Jersey, 8/94 to 6/96. Led enterprise wide cross-functional teams to create comprehensive financial planning advisory services for Prudential.

Reengineering Executive, Prudential, Liberty Corner, New Jersey, 1/94 to 8/94. One of twenty top performers selected to serve on the Prudential reengineering consulting team.

Marketing Executive, Prudential, Houston, Texas, 3/93 to 1/94. Led the marketing effort for the southern United States (1,200 financial professionals in 19 states). Responsibilities included marketing support programs, advanced planning operations, and training.

Agency Manager, Prudential, Dallas/Arlington, Texas, 6/90 to 3/93. Led a 45 person financial services agency. Twice won Prudential's highest leadership award, the President's Citation.

Manager, Prudential Management Development Center, Millburn, New Jersey, 1/89 to 6/90. Broke the 20 year sales record and simultaneously led the school in academic requirements.

WORK HISTORY PRIOR TO 1989

Intelligence Officer, HSC, 107th Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Ord, California, 11/87 to 10/88. Managed all electronic warfare equipment, surveillance equipment, computers, communications systems, and battalion vehicles. Led 31 soldiers in seven highly technical specialty fields.

Electronic Warfare Officer, 107th Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Ord, California, 1/87 to 11/87. Served as an intelligence liaison officer.

Battalion S-2/Tactical Intelligence Officer, 1/72d Armor Battalion, Camp Casey, Korea, 7/85 to 8/86. Primary staff intelligence officer providing local and worldwide intelligence information. Supervised 27 Korean nationals and 5 U.S. personnel.

Telecommunications Specialist, 104th Tactical Fighter Group, Westfield, Massachusetts, 1/81 to 12/83. Responsible for secure transmission of classified documents to worldwide locations.

PERSONAL, EDUCATION & OTHER

MBA from the University of San Francisco, a B.S. in Management from the University of Lowell (Magna Cum Laude), and CLU/ChFC designations from the American College.

A passion for helping poor children and have volunteered in this capacity around the world. In 2003, founded Franciscan Works, a charitable program for war orphans in Liberia, Africa that currently serves over 375 children. In 2008, founded Special Ambassadors to care for disabled people at the Our Lady of Fatima Rehabilitation Center in Liberia, Africa. Author of several books and producer of two documentaries. Married and have three young sons and one daughter. Prior to being blessed with children, served in the Big Brother program helping 7 children over an 18 year period.